Coaches:

Gene Cobbs

Dynamic, highly motivated and resourceful professional with twenty six years of success in teaching, and coaching of volleyball. Demonstrated expertise in the areas of motivation, communication, fundamentals, and advanced skills. Proven ability to think laterally and communicate effectively at all levels. Committed to excellence and the achievement of player success as well as academic success.

Jourdan Worthington

Played volleyball on varsity for 3 1/2 years at Reitz as a setter, played travel for 7 years, and played my freshman year of college. I have coached at Reitz for two seasons and coached travel for 4 years. I am currently a Psychology major at USI. My goal is to improve the skills of the players and help them become better teammates.

Kelsey Carr

4 year starter as a middle hitter. I have coached for 2 years at Reitz High School and 2 years as a club coach. My focus is on hitting and transition. Teaching players the importance of team dynamics and work ethic that lead to player and team success.

Jelena Merseli Vucetic

International volleyball player who played for 10 years abroad before coming to play Division 1 volleyball at University of Evansville. After graduating she coached for 4 years club and school volleyball and she trained many players aside. She believes that hard work and attention to details are the most important to be successful volleyball player!

CAMP SUMMARY

Campers will have the opportunity to experience three days full of volleyball fundamentals. The camp will be fun as well as challenging. Every aspect of volleyball will be covered.

The Reitz volleyball coaching staff is excited about the prospects of working with young people in our area. Coach Cobbs is building a quality program based on hard work, fundamentals, dedication, and enthusiasm.

One of our goals is to develop a closeness and sense of loyalty and belonging within the Reitz High School Community. We hope that everyone in our area that loves the game of volleyball and is interested in helping our youth become the best that they can be and will support the Reitz Volleyball Camp.
