Grayslake Youth Baseball David G Peregrin Scholarship

Deadline: April 5th, 2019

A $2,500.00 scholarship will be awarded to a Grayslake Community High School District 127 *senior(s) (Class 2019) who plans to further their education at an institution of higher learning immediately following graduation. This award is limited to senior varsity softball and baseball players.

Applicants must submit the following

- Completed cover sheet with Counselor's signature.
- Typed personal statement on where you see yourself and your aspirations.
- Proof of acceptance (or proof of application if acceptance has not yet been received) to college or university of choice.
- List of school and community activities, including leadership positions outside of baseball. Be specific on involvement and personal achievements that could be formative in your future dreams.
- Official sealed academic transcript (based on 7 semesters)
- Completed Scholarship Recipient Certification.
- Proof of lettering in varsity softball or baseball from Athletic Director.
- Candidates must make themselves available for a 20-minute interview with Scholarship Committee.

Selection will be based on individuals who have demonstrated exemplary leadership and life skills, through civic and community activities, academic success, and the fulfillment of the "TEAM" commitment.

*The Scholarship Foundation Committee reserves the exclusive right in determining the individual / individuals recognized for this award. In the event the committee recognizes that more than one candidate is deserved of this award, the monetary amount can be adjusted accordingly.
