OPHS Hall of Fame Induction Criteria:

The nomination process was completed in May of 2023 and the nominees were selected using the following criteria:

ELIGIBILITY*

The following people are eligible for consideration for membership to the Hall of Fame:

1. Athletes: All athletes who participated in a VHSL sanctioned varsity sport while attending Osbourn Park High School are eligible for nomination into the Hall of Fame. In special circumstances as determined by the Trustees in a simple majority vote a waiver for consideration for membership can be granted for athletes who participated in a non-VHSL sanctioned sport while attending Osbourn Park High School. Admission is open to all athletes 10 years after (a) graduation from Osbourn Park High School, or (b) in the event the athlete graduated from another high school, the date they were expected to graduate from Osbourn Park High School.
2. Coaches: All coaches who coached a VHSL/PWCS sanctioned Osbourn Park athletic team for five years or more are eligible for nomination into the Hall of Fame. Admission is open to all coaches two years after they retire from coaching, or in special circumstances as determined by the Trustees, in a simple majority vote a waiver can be granted.
3. Administrator or Contributor: Individuals who over multiple years worked as an employee or volunteer of Osbourn Park High School or significantly contributed time or resources, in each case to betterment of the Osbourn Park athletic program, are eligible for nomination into the Hall of Fame two years after departure from OPHS, or in special circumstances as determined by the Trustees in a simple majority vote a waiver can be granted.
4. Teams: All teams who participated in a VHSL/PWCS sanctioned varsity sport while attending Osbourn Park High School are eligible for nomination into the Hall of Fame.

Morality Clause: Inductee/Inducted member should exemplify moral integrity and good judgement.

Osbourn Park High School

Osbourn Park is located at 8909 Euclid Avenue in Manassas, Virginia.

Osbourn Park opened in 1975 to replace the “old” Osbourn High School. Shortly after the opening, the Cities of Manassas and Manassas Park formed their own school divisions. The school was originally named after Eugenia Osbourn, a longtime educator from Manassas.
